

Plant Maintenance – New Richmond, WI

General Summary of Job Position

- Perform general equipment maintenance, repair & modification of existing plant equipment & machinery
- Installation of new plant equipment & machinery
- Perform or assist in the performance of minor plumbing, hydraulics & electrical
- Adequate welding/fabricating skills are required
- Perform other duties in conjunction with maintenance, such as learning all production jobs as required, and filling in as processing lead person in the different processing areas.
- The company encourages & finances job-related classes/webinars/seminars/conferences
- Must have your own tools.
- Safety – Must have a great safety attitude & exhibit a commitment to meeting safety expectations.
- Overtime mandatory during production period (July-November).
- Company is open to all experience/skill levels that fall in line with the above work requirements.

Lakeside Foods offers competitive wages based upon skill, knowledge, experience and work ethic. This position includes a full benefit package. The company encourages & finances job-related classes/seminars/conferences that will further education.

All interested applicants can apply through any of the following options; in person, mail application, email application/resume, or fax to:

Lakeside Foods
660 N. 2nd Street
New Richmond, WI 54017
Attn: Erica Kunze, HR & Safety Manager
Phone: (715) 716-4979
Fax: (715) 243-7356
Email: ekunze@lakesidefoods.com
Equal Employment Opportunity Employer
M/F/D/V

*Applications can also be obtained via the Lakeside Foods website (lakesidefoods.com) or at our plant office.